Volunteering opportunities related to Psychological Sciences

Below are specific opportunities linked to psychological sciences and related areas. You may also want to think about specific skills you want to develop as these experiences can come from volunteering which may not be directly related to your study area but still create the opportunity to develop these skills.

The following organisations are registered with the Volunteering and Community Engagement Team and are actively looking to recruit students as volunteers. If you are interested in volunteering or finding out more please look at the organisation’s website or contact the organisation direct with the details given.

African and Caribbean Mental Health Services

Radio Lollipop www.radiolollipop.org

Radio Lollipop believes in the healing power of play - providing smiles and laughter to children at a time when they need it most. Radio Lollipop gives young patients a voice and a choice during their stay. While they can’t say “no” to taking their medicine or receiving treatment, they can request their favourite songs, win prizes and hear their own voices on the radio. Those activities give youngsters a haven of normality in the hospital day which in other respects is strange, different and often scary.
